THE THEME.

Today we celebrate the feast of the Trinity: the community that is God. This great mystery tells us that we are never alone. The early church recognized this in the Trinitarian formula of the sign of the cross. Every time we cross ourselves in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we are reminded that they are together as one, and so are we.

THE READINGS

DEUTERONOMY 4:32-34, 39-40: Moses proclaims one God to the Israelites.

ROMANS 8:14-17: All are heirs of God through the Spirit.

From Fr. Peter's Desk The Most Holy Trinity

Dear Parish Family:

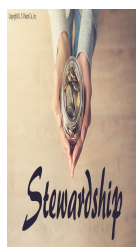

In our First Reading from Deuteronomy, Moses tells the people that no other God had ever done all the one-of-a-kind wonders that the Lord had done for them. This reading from the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Old Testament, presents a poetic image of God's creative sovereignty.

In Ancient Rome, infants who were found abandoned were as likely to be adopted as slaves as adopted as children. So, when St. Paul writes to the Romans that they received a "Spirit of adoption, "not a spirit of slavery," he is distinguishing between two different ways in which children could be brought into a family. In that way, Paul says that those who have adopted Christianity, so to speak, can call God, "Abba, Father". They can use the words children would use to address their own fathers-their birth fathers. The bond between the Christians of Rome and God is a bond of love, just like the bond between children and parents.

Our Gospel encounter affirms that it is acceptable for faith to seek understanding. We are the imperfect disciples of Christ, who are doing the best that we can. The Good News is that Jesus will be with us always, guiding us through the Holy Spirit to relationship with God as Father, Creator, and Lord of all.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, on this Trinity Sunday, we recognize that human beings are made in the image and likeness of a God who is relationship-Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Today we celebrate this unity, which models for us how to create a community that reflects the love of God.

God Bless You All,
Fr. Peter
