PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY:

Hours by appointment only.

Magi from the east arrived

THE THEME

In this time of increased nationalism, erecting barriers, and labeling others as threats or enemies, this feast calls us to a powerful counter-message. Our field of vision and inclusion must be much larger than that of the status quo. It must have been shocking to learn that God’s love extended not only to the Gentiles, but to the whole world. It may be equally shocking to realize that our boundaries are also too narrow. This feast is an epiphany about God’s will for Christ’s impact and ours on the world.

THE READINGS

ISAIAH 60:1-6: “Nations shall walk by your light.”

EPHESIANS 3:2-3a, 5-6: Jews and Gentiles are co-heirs.

MATTHEW 2:1-12: The Magi visit from the east.

From Fr. Peter’s Desk
The Epiphany of the Lord

Dear Parish Family:

Journeys play a prominent role in the readings for Epiphany. In our First Reading from Isaiah, the Prophet describes the day when caravans from near and far will be drawn to a radiant Jerusalem. Our responsorial psalm tells of kings from even the most distant nations who will come to pay the Messiah homage.

In our Second Reading, from St. Paul to the Ephesians, Paul insists that the Gentiles are invited into the same body with the same promise of salvation.

Our Gospel reading tells the story of the Magi’s long journey to see the newborn king. Following both the bright star in the western sky and centuries of wisdom from their traditions, the magi traveled from distant lands to search for the newborn king. What had been revealed to only a few nearby shepherds had now been made manifest to people from foreign nations. Today, two thousand years later and many thousands of miles from Bethlehem, we celebrate that the Lord’s birth has been made known all around the world, for all time!

My brothers and sisters in Christ, little is known about the visitors from the East who paid the Holy Family homage, but their story reminds us that great things happen in the humblest of places. Today, we reflect on the world around us and look for examples of the miraculous way God allows great things to occur in the humblest of places. Let us pray to be open to the great blessings that God gives us in our lives and to be able to recognize and be thankful for these gifts from our Heavenly Father.

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal

Did you give a gift to the 2024 CMA to help support the many ministries of the Diocese? We've reached about 75% of our parish goal with gifts from 40 parishioners. Thank you to those parishioners for your support to the annual appeal which helps to serve more than 600,000 people on Long Island. If you have not as yet given a gift, please use the response forms by the church doors to give a gift. And please remember, NO GIFT IS TOO SMALL AND EVERY GIFT MAKES A DIFFERENCE.
