THE THEME

As we enter the midpoint of Lent, our readings become more uncompromising and candid about how we are to live our lives. Through our Lenten practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we must continue to cultivate good habits that will last long after Lent has ended. How is your Lenten journey going?

THE READINGS

EXODUS 3:1-8a, 13-15: I am sent to you. This is my name forever.

1CORINTHIANS 10:1-6, 10-12: Do not be unaware, take care not to fall.

LUKE 13:1-9: If you do not repent, you will perish.

From Fr. Peter's Desk Third Sunday of Lent

Dear Parish Family:

In Scripture, sometimes the “turning” is literal. In the Hebrew text of the first reading, many translations have Moses saying to himself, “let me turn aside and see this great sight...” Turning the body alone is not always enough; repentance requires interior renewal.

St. Paul, in our Second Reading, notes that one can witness great miracles and not experience a change of heart.

In our Gospel reading, the parable of the fig tree recognizes that interior renewal is a slow process. The gardener proposes a slow process of strengthening the life of the tree. Just so, our interior transformation grows slowly through fasting, almsgiving, and prayer. These are Jesus’ gardening techniques that give life in every age to His disciples.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, the parable of the patient gardener is a reminder of our potential for growth. Now at the midpoint of our Lenten journey, we should reflect on our attentiveness to our Lenten practices and make any necessary adjustments as we consider Jesus’ words about repentance, that we heard in our Gospel reading. We still have the opportunity to repent of our sins and to turn back to God with our whole hearts. How lucky we are that we can! As we continue through this holy season, let us make the most of this opportunity.

*God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter*

Stewardship Reflection

This Lenten season, consider making a gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal as your way of practicing almsgiving?

Living Stewardship

Hospitality helps bring others to the Lord. How are you hospitable to your neighbors, co-workers, pupils, etc.?

Faith Direct

During Lent we are reminded to develop a more conscious spiritual life and share what we have with those in need. One practical way to achieve this goal is to make the change to eGiving for your parish support. You can use our parish's online giving platform, Faith Direct, to deepen your commitment to the church and the ministries you care about most. Your recurring gifts will sustain our mission month after month. You will also help our parish by cutting costs for envelopes and paper allowing our staff to spend less time processing cash and checks and more time on ministries. Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/NY296 or call Faith Direct Customer Service at 866-507-8757. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

*God Bless You,
Fr. Peter*

Parish Memorials

St. Andrew's offers different types of memorials which can be donated in memory of a deceased family member or friend, or for the intentions of living individuals for special occasions.
